The Gem Forge is a puzzle game where you merge gems of the same type. But the game is not about numbers. Here, you need to get all of the gems in order to have a high score. While you do this, you have to avoid getting surrounded by sharp pieces of glass. A new type of gemstone is brought to the game every 3 hours, so you need to be ready to get them! Your objective is to make the most precious gem of all. Earn the highest score and try to get the highest rank in the leaderboards! Gem Forge News ★★★★★ Come a bit closer: This weekend will be 'The Weekend of a Genius'. It will begin on Friday night and will continue until Monday. During this weekend, all gems will be rendered in different colors. You can change the color of gems to enjoy the game in an even brighter way. Also, there will be no gold and silver gems, which are replaced with every gem. In addition, there will be 3 new types of gemstones (luminous stone, diamond, and diamond). Happy gaming! ★ New Gems! ★ There will be 3 new gemstones, which will be added to the game on July 10. Diamond: Top priority Diamonds have very high priority. This means that they are the hardest gems of the game and they do not give a score for merging. Diamond has 5 abilities: Strong: When the diamond touches any other gemstone, it can absorb gemstones of the same type. Refined: It can split apart diamonds into pieces of the same type of gemstone. Poison: Some gems have this ability and it can damage you if you contact them. Picking up: Diamond will pick up pieces of other gemstones and have them inside it. Breathing: When the gemstone is inside the diamond, it can breath. ★ New Game modes! ★ There will be a new 4xx8 game mode! You have to merge all the gems into a precious gemstone, which will be the most precious and it will have the highest score. In 4xx8, you have to move all the gems on the 4x4 grid and you can move only two at a time. So, try to move the gems, but pay attention not to touch the glass. There will be an extra ability for this game mode: Your grid can breathe: When you press '
