Technical Field The present invention relates to a liquid ejecting head and a piezoelectric element, and a liquid ejecting apparatus and a piezoelectric element. 2. Related Art Piezoelectric elements are known as a kind of element which is used for a liquid ejecting head. In general, a piezoelectric element is an element which includes a piezoelectric film in which an electric field is applied thereto to cause a deformation. When an electric field is applied to the piezoelectric film, a piezoelectric material contained in the piezoelectric film expands and contracts in a thickness direction of the film. Thereby, the piezoelectric element causes the generation of the pressure inside a pressure chamber, thereby pressurizing the liquid in the pressure chamber, and the ejection of the liquid in the pressure chamber from a nozzle. The piezoelectric element is configured in such a manner that the piezoelectric film is laminated on an upper face of the pressure chamber in which the piezoelectric element is disposed. In addition, there is proposed a piezoelectric element which includes a piezoelectric film disposed on a side face of the pressure chamber, and the piezoelectric element also includes an extension layer which is formed so as to be continuous to the piezoelectric film, and which extends from the piezoelectric film to an upper face of the pressure chamber (for example, refer to JP-A-2007-67115). However, in such a piezoelectric element, it is desired to further reduce the 05a79cecff

FALL FOR ABSAIS: MEGHAN MARKLE, DONALD TRUMP MARRY IN REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE-BASED WEDDING May 19th, 2017 Rising Hollywood starlet, model, actress and now superstar has wed her boyfriend, 36-year-old Harvard grad Meghan Markle, in a secretive ceremony in the French countryside. "It's over. No more questions. I'm off on my honeymoon and I don't want to be bothered. I know what I'm doing and I'm doing what I want. My and Harry's show is over." Sources close to the bride revealed to The Telegraph that the couple have chosen to celebrate their wedding privately with just a small group of guests and no photographers. The pop couple have chosen to hide the details of their ceremony in Meghan Markle's local French hometown, La Colle Sur Loup, which is a village of around 8,000 people in the country's Lot region. The gorgeous bride dressed in a gorgeous, white, V-neck cashmere sweater and grey skirt gave a jaw-dropping view on the red carpet of the Historic Hotel de Crillon in the heart of Paris. She dined with her new husband and a few close friends on the first night of their romantic honeymoon in Monaco. Meghan's maternity duvet wedding dress by Canadian-born designer Rachel Roy is a breathtaking piece, featuring a fitted neckline, a flattering, high waist and knee length skirt. The bride carried a large piece of Bois Ombre and a small black felt pocket square in her handbag with a navy blue coloured, wooden embellishment. Meghan carried a silver-chased, crystal-embellished black clutch which was also adorned with a navy blue felt pocket square. The couple didn't walk down the aisle either, but instead made their way down the aisle. "They both got out of the car with their arms around each other and made their way up the aisle. They held hands during the ceremony," a source told The Telegraph. The bride arrived at the hotel 15 minutes before the ceremony to ensure that everything was on point. She went into the ceremony straight after her final fittings of the day. "She looked gorgeous,
