His genius was to identify that processes of social and political development inevitably follow a certain inevitable direction, called a.q.diyah. Ibn-Khaldun was the first to express this idea, the direction of history, and he also identified the most important processes that led to the evolution of modern times. His analysis of the course of events in human history showed that it was a process of constant progress in all spheres of the universe. In fact, he illustrated the idea of progress throughout the Muqaddimah. He also explained how political power was developed through a process of social and cultural development, and also identified political power as essential to the development of the society itself. Ibn-Khaldun also traced the history of the Mongols in his book the Panchatantra or the Greater Fun. It is a classic example of the demand-driven economic growth concept. In the Muqaddimah, Ibn Khaldun emphasises the importance of unity. Pak Khaldun disebut-sebab setiap seluruh dunia yang berdasarkan urusan. Ibnu Khaldun then looked for the cause of social harm. A similar pattern.
